"Closing out 2017 with a bang!

Moe Mountain Hot Sauce receives 1st place in World Hot Sauce Awards in the Specialty Sauce Category!"

Upper Greenwood Lake, NJ, December 2017- Moe Mountain Hot Sauce, created by Martin Olsen, has done it again receiving 1st place in the Specialty Sauce Category! M.M.H.S. also took home 3rd place in the World Hot Sauce Awards for Best Chipotle Sauce. As always, numerous companies from all over the world enter to compete in the World Hot Sauce Awards. Visit www.worldhotsauceawards.com to find out more.

Moe Mountain Hot Sauce features a unique blend of spices and ingredients including apple cider vinegar, cumin, cocoa powder and more. But, the star ingredient, by far is the legendary bhut jolokia pepper, a.k.a. ghost chili pepper, touted as one of the hottest chili peppers on the planet. Moe Mountain's Original Hot Sauce features a smokiness and spiciness that sets this hot sauce apart from the rest. Reviewers have called this hot sauce "Dark, spicy, and just slightly hot", as well as "...a tremendously balanced blend of flavor to create an overall flavor profile that should please most people for anyone from novice chilehead to seasoned fire-eater...". Moe Mountain hot sauce is currently available for purchase online and in numerous locations.

Olsen, a Brooklyn, New York native, created Moe Mountain Hot Sauce in 2004 after 'grab-bagging' a hot sauce kit at a holiday party. The rest is history. After experimenting to make the perfect hot sauce from real and quality ingredients, like apple cider vinegar, the recipe was trademarked, bottled and is now loved for its uniquely spicy, hot and smoky flavor. The name of the hot sauce, "Moe Mountain" was chosen by Olsen as a tribute to the unique history of Upper Greenwood Lake, New Jersey, where Olsen now lives and serves as a volunteer firefighter.
